

February 3, 1948

Dear Mr. Jackson:

I wish to express the appreciation of the National Security Council for your willingness to serve on the survey group which Secretary of Defense Forrestal discussed with you. Mr. Dulles and Mr. Correa have also agreed to serve on the group.

I discussed the matter today with Mr. Dulles, and he will get together with you and Mr. Correa to make arrangements for your first meeting in Washington.

With kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,
